JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $300, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

As provided in 18 U.S.C. § 3663A(c)(3), mandatory restitution is not ordered because an offense against property is involved, and the number of identifiable victims is so large as to make restitution impracticable.

The Court recommends that the Bureau of Prisons conduct a mental health evaluation of the defendant and provide all necessary treatment

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Matthew C. Rubin, is hereby committed on Counts 1, 2, and 3 of the 3-count first superseding information to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of SEVENTY-EIGHT (78) MONTHS. This term consists of 78 months on each of Counts 1, 2, and 3 of the 3-count first superseding information, to be served concurrently.

Further redisclosure of the Presentence Report by the treatment provider is prohibited without the consent of the sentencing judge.

The Court recommends the defendant's participation in the 500-hour RDAP program.

The Court recommends that the defendant be designated to a Bureau of Prisons facility in Southern California..

Counsel for the government motions the Court to dismiss the underlying indictment. Motion granted.

Defendant is advised of his right to appeal.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
